VI.

BOARD DISCUSSION

A. Middle School Immersion Update

Mr. Kessler provided several handouts regarding the middle school immersion program. Mr. Kessler provided a review of the program and expectations from prior discussions with the community in 2016. A parent transitional meeting occurred on February 14 and along with a Powerpoint presentation, parents were provided a list of frequently asked questions. Included in the frequently asked questions were options for elective courses, enrollment levels, and high school credit opportunities. Next steps include emailing a survey to current 4th and 5th grade families regarding their intent to register for middle school immersion classes. There will be a 5th grade middle school registration meeting on March 28. Registration will be due by the end of April.
