

C.O. HARRISON

COLONEL'S CORNER

November 30th, 2018

1. It's that time of year again. Caring & Sharing will be collecting change from November 27th- December 14th in each classroom to help our CO families this holiday season. Check your couch cushions and piggy banks for spare change to send in with your student. The classroom with the largest collection will win a pizza party. Students will be given a Christmas decorated baggie to send in coins to their home room teacher.

11. Attendance Reminders - Parents are responsible for contacting the school absence line (513-922-1485-press "1" for attendance) each day to give the REASON for a child's absence. You can email the teacher as well but please copy the attendance secretary (blome_d@ohlsd.org) on any email so that she can document the reason for each absence. If a parent calls the absence line but does NOT give the reason for an absence, the absence is unexcused. After 10 days (60 hours) of absences, a student must have a doctor note to excuse an absence. Please remember that all tardy/late arrivals count in the tally for attendance as well. School starts at 9am which means the student must be in the classroom, ready to go at 9am!
