5. Do you know a special person -- maybe a retiree or parent -- who would enjoy working for Oak Hills Local Schools as a bus aide on buses that transport students with special needs? It's important work that makes a real difference for our students and families, and a great opportunity to be part of the OHLSD family. Successful candidates will enjoy great hours, paid training, and summers and major holidays off. Current hourly wage is $13.66, increasing to $13.93 for the 2022-2023 school year. Please contact Transportation Supervisor Tracy Marcum at 513-574-2161 for information and an application. Thanks for sharing this information with folks you know who may be interested!
6. MSJ Football is excited to announce our inaugural Middle School Football Camp! The camp is designed for campers entering 5th grade through 8th grade. Here is the link to register and more info: <https://msjlions.com/sports/2022/3/29/msj-middle-school-football-camp.aspx>
