

August 28th, 2020

Dear Colonel Families,

We are more than excited to have your children, our students back on campus on Thursday and Friday. While some things will look a little different, some things will always be the same. We will not change our care, compassion, and hard work. We will not stop educating your children with empathy and understanding. We will not stop working to be the best staff we can be.

For carpool, you will drop off and pick up in the same locations. Students will enter differently but you will not do anything different. Once they are out of the car we will take over and help them every step of the way. That is the Colonel Way.

Again, we are looking forward to being together on campus next week. If we can help in any way please let us know. Our goal has not changed. We want to provide a safe environment with a quality education for every student, every day.

Respectfully,

Brian Conners & Amy Marquette
