Legos from Lance Project

The Legos from Lance Project donated over 1000 sets of Legos to Cincinnati Children's Hospital last year. The project was started in loving memory of Lance Winters, the son of J.F. Dulles teacher Victoria Burnham and Springmyer Principal Mark Winters, who passed away in 2023 from renal cell carcinoma at the age 22. It was one of the largest toy donations ever to CCHMC.

A District of Readers

A primary focus for the entire Oak Hills Local School District is strengthening early literacy development. The work starts at birth, by encouraging parents to support emerging oral-language skills; moves into playing with sounds and making connections to the written word in preschool; and leads to building phonics and word-recognition skills in the primary grades. The staff has devoted significant time to building background knowledge and skills; identifying best practices; establishing a solid literacy foundation for all students, and targeting support to students who struggle.

FINE ARTS OPPORTUNITIES

for Service, Self-Expression and Enrichment

The Memory Project: Drawing and Printmaking: OHHS

"The Memory Project" is a nonprofit organization that invites art teachers and their students to create portraits for youth around the world who have faced substantial challenges, such as neglect, abuse, loss of parents, and extreme poverty. Students created over 30 more portraits in 2023-2024 for children in Columbia, bringing the total created for children around the world to over 450 to date.

The Save Local Waters Rain Barrel Project: Painting and Public Art and National Art Honor Society: OHHS

The Rain Barrel Art Project desires to educate people on environmental issues like stormwater runoff, watersheds, and water conservation. OHHS artists in Ms. Kopf's Painting and Public Art and Ms. Schorsch's National Art Honor Society created 4 Rain Barrels for the event! Completed Rain Barrels were displayed at the Cincinnati Zoo and auctioned off online.

Veterans Day Preparations

Every year, the National Art Honor Society at OHHS works to create posters and handmade thank you cards, to welcome our community veterans for a celebration of their service.

Veteran's Day Assembly

Every year, Photoshop students create large format posters to hang in the old gym for our Veterans in attendance. They create designs that reflect the themes selected for each year's assembly. Video Technology students create Welcome Home videos to compete for the spots in the Assembly where 2 - 3 will be shared.

Painting and Public Art: Pink Ribbon Girls Painted Pumpkins:

Students painted 50 pumpkins for the Pink Ribbon Girls Pink Pumpkin Sale Fundraiser in October.
