

USE	NO AI USE	AI-Assisted Editing	AI-Assisted Generation and Structuring	AI-Directed
Description	AI may not be used to aid or assist in student products. Product is entirely student created.	AI may be used to edit student work in an attempt to improve the submission. Student work should be created first and then may be supported by AI.	AI may be used to generate ideas and help students create outlines or graphic organizers. No AI content is allowed in the submission.	AI may be used to complete certain elements of a student product as a supplemental support. Students must provide critical analysis and oversight of products created by AI.
Permission and Examples	NONE	Edit grammar, word choice, conventions, and spelling. Ask for specific feedback on student produced work.	Create a graphic organizer or outline. Brainstorm ideas based on a given assignment or topic.	Summarizing articles Researching content for assignment, projects, or essay.
Disclosure Requirements	NONE	Statement explaining how AI was used.	Statement explaining how AI was used.	Statement explaining how AI was used. All content created needs a proper MLA, APA, or Chicago citation.